

Well when my husband was working on the water gardens in 1972, it was put into the Gazette. And I cut it out and I put it on cardboard and put it, just put it in the cupboard. And, a few weeks ago, our sister in law said that she thought she'd seen something in the Gazette that they were looking for information about the water gardens and I'd remembered the picture. And I came home and got it out, and um, I put it on Hemel [Hempstead] Remembered [Facebook group] and I got quite a lot of likes, well there was 64 likes on it and then this lady, Liz, got in touch with me and, we emailed one another and she arranged to come and speak to my husband
